

Look carefully at the picture below. It is a painting of The Orion, one of the ships that James Saumarez captained. Imagine you were on board, sailing with him, into battle with the French. Write about the conditions on board, how you felt, the battle at sea and so on.

Print out the page

